

PURCHASE ORDER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Acceptance of Terms

The sale and purchase of goods is pursuant to this purchase order ("Order"). Acknowledgement of this Order, including by delivery of goods, constitutes your acceptance of the Order. Acceptance is expressly limited to the terms in this Order. ANY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT, INVOICE, PACKING SLIP, OR OTHER DOCUMENT SUBMITTED BY YOU THAT CONTAINS TERMS INCONSISTENT WITH OR IN ADDITION TO THE TERMS OF THIS ORDER IS SPECIFICALLY OBJECTED TO AND IS NOT BINDING ON BUYER. Buyer is not obligated to purchase Goods from you on an exclusive basis.

Payment

Payment terms are Net 60. Orders will be paid using Evaluated Receipt Settlements (ERS) or after receiving your packing slip or invoice. The packing slip or invoice must include your name, packing slip or invoice number, and a description of the goods being supplied.

Delivery and Shipping Terms; Time is of the Essence

Deliveries must be made both in quantities and at times specified by the Order or as otherwise directed by Buyer. Premium shipping expenses or other expenses necessary to meet delivery schedules are your responsibility unless the delay or expense results solely from Buyer's actions. Buyer's acceptance of goods not timely delivered is not a waiver of its right to damages. Time is of the essence with respect to your obligation to deliver goods. You bear the risk associated with the lead times for raw material and components necessary to comply with your delivery obligations. If your failure to timely deliver conforming goods disrupts Buyer's production schedule, you will be liable for all damages, including: (i) premium paid for bringing in alternate approved goods from another supplier; (ii) premium paid to expedite delivery of goods; and (iii) lost profits due to production down time.

Packing, Preservation and Marking

Packing, preservation and marking of goods will be as provided in Buyer's specifications, or if not specified, according to best commercially accepted practice. A packing slip must accompany each box or package and a copy or email of the packing slip must be mailed separately to Buyer on the date of shipment to the destination point.

Inspection and Quality

All goods will be subject to inspection and test where such inspection and test is conducted at your production facility, on reasonable notice by Buyer. Buyer's waiver of inspection, failure to inspect, accept, reject, or detect defects by inspection or testing will not relieve you of your responsibility for goods that do not meet Buyer's specifications or Order requirements. Buyer will not accept any defective goods.

Buyer's Remedies

If you deliver goods that are defective or fail to conform with any specification or requirement, Buyer's remedies include: (i) right to terminate this Order; (ii) reject and return the goods; (iii) require you to provide conforming goods or repair parts, including field replacement; (iv) take all reasonable actions to cure all defects or bring the goods into conformity with all requirements, including procuring an alternate source for the goods or any tests required by Buyer to verify conformance; and (v) withhold total or partial payment for goods. If you deliver goods that are defective or fail to conform to any specification or requirement, you will be liable for all costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, and damages associated with Buyer's remedies.

Warranties

THE FOLLOWING WARRANTIES WILL APPLY FOR A PERIOD OF 60 MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF DELIVERY OF GOODS, OR THE LENGTH OF YOUR WRITTEN WARRANTY, WHICHEVER IS LONGER. You warrant that goods will: (i) conform to Buyer's specifications, standards, drawings or descriptions furnished to you; (ii) comply with all applicable regulations or other legal requirements concerning the manufacture, packaging, packing and delivery of the goods including, but not limited to, all the applicable safety, environmental and export regulations of the United States, European Union and all other applicable countries and regions; (iii) not infringe any patent or other intellectual property right of a third party, except in cases where the goods were designed or manufactured in accordance with Buyer's designs and the alleged infringement would not have occurred but for these designs; and (iv) be conveyed with good title and free of all claims and encumbrances. Any repaired or replaced goods will carry warranties on the same terms as set forth above, with the warranty period being 60 months after repair or replacement or the period as is provided in your written warranty, whichever is longer.

Termination

Buyer may terminate this Order without cause and without liability to you, by providing 30 days prior notice. Buyer will pay you for any goods that were delivered and accepted before your receipt of the termination notice. Any action by you under this Order must be commenced within one year after the breach or other event giving rise to your claim occurs. Upon termination, you will refund Buyer any amounts paid for non-provided or defective or non-conforming goods.

Indemnification

You will defend and indemnify Buyer against all allegations, claims, damages, expenses (including attorneys' fees), and liabilities (i) relating to any personal injury, death, property damage, any recall or product withdrawal caused by the goods or (ii) based on alleged infringement of any patent, trademark, copyright or any other intellectual property right, or misappropriation of a trade secret, relating to the goods. If Buyer or its customers are enjoined from use of the goods or if in Buyer's opinion the goods are likely to become the subject of a claim of infringement, you, at your own expense, must either cure the alleged infringement by procuring the right for Buyer and its customers to continue using the goods, or replace or modify the goods to make them non-infringing (as alleged) without affecting their essential function. You will have no obligation to defend or indemnify Buyer if the goods were designed or manufactured in accordance with Buyer's designs and the alleged infringement or event giving rise to indemnification would not have occurred but for these designs.

You will also provide all information necessary to fulfill any customs related or other governmental agency related obligations, origin marking, Harmonized Tariff Schedule code, Country of Origin, or labeling requirements, and certification of local content reporting requirements, to enable Buyer to claim preferential duty treatment for goods and comply with required data elements on international shipping documents.

Dispute Resolution, Governing Law and Venue

You and Buyer will attempt to amicably resolve any dispute arising out of any Order. If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute within 30 days following notice of the dispute, either party may initiate litigation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may pursue injunctive relief at any time to avoid irreparable harm. The parties expressly disclaim applicability of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods and any conflicts-of-law provisions that would require another choice of law.
